

Property Management Staff are Invited to Learn About Crime-free Multi-housing Programs

in partnership with the San Diego Police Department

Please join the El Cajon and San Diego Police Departments and a variety of community partners for a FREE training session on Crime-free Multi-housing. This is a no-cost benefit to owners and managers of properties within the City of El Cajon. The training will provide you resources to make your apartment community a more desirable place for your residents, lower the crime incidents in and around your apartment community, and help you attract and retain residents who will take pride in living in the apartment community.

- An opportunity to build a positive, proactive relationship with the El Cajon Police Department.
- Learn from experts in the fields of narcotics, lighting, environmental design, gangs, graffiti, liability and more.
- This program has demonstrated success in San Diego and nationwide.

Monday, November 6
